Martín de León

Martín De León is part of the company “Forever Tango” since October of 2005, touring worldwide through the U.S.A, Canada, Japan, Taiwan, Portugal, China, Greece, Israel and Mexico, among other countries. He started his artistic career in the 70’s in Buenos Aires, Argentina, arriving to the United States in 1975 under contract with “Café Latinoamericano” in Manhattan, where he shared the stage with Facundo Cabral, Ginamaria Hidalgo and Maestro Savicas among others. In 1978 he held his first concert at the Carnegie Recital Hall with the show “Nueva Canción Latinoamericana.” Encouraged by singers like Alberto Castillo, Alberto Podestá and Alberto Echagüe, he now sings Tango almost exclusively, as it reaches deep within his soul and roots. In 1987, de León was chosen by Maestro Astor Piazzola to perform his “María de Buenos Aires,” and in 1992 participated in a tribute to Piazzola with Al Di Meola, Dino Saluzzi, Gary Mulligan and the quintet directed by Maestro Raúl Jaurena. He is well known throughout Latin America, performing regularly in Ecuador and Colombia. Martín de León incorporates songs by new composers with new perspectives into his repertoire, without forgetting the classics he so admires and respects.
